Types of Programs: Programs for youth ages 12 to 17, support services for parents and other adults. The facility includes a gymnasium, multi-purpose room, classroom, counseling room, conference room, game room, boxing room and administrative offices.

General Type Programs:

A place for youth and their families to learn, grow and have fun! This is a positive, safe place where teenagers come daily to play and learn. Parents and other adults participate in recreational and support services that enhance their quality of life and help strengthen their families. In 1997, Catholic Charities, a non-profit social service agency, was selected by the local community and the City of San José to operate Washington United Youth Center. Their mission is to provide youth and their families with the support needed to be successful in school, employment and the community. Washington United Youth Center offers programming targeting youth ages 12-17 and support services for parents and other adults.

Available activities:

Sports, game room, structured programming for youth and adults, individual and family support, arts, dance, artistic programs, cultural programming and events.

For further information about programs and events, contact Washington United Youth Center at 408-938-6731.

Dog Parks

The City of San José Dog Parks are located at Ryland Park, Miyuki Park, Jeffrey Fontana Park, Discovery Dog Park (a.k.a. Delmas), Butcher Park and Saratoga Creek Park. San José Dog

Parks are fenced areas where dogs can run off leash and socialize with other dogs. Dogs must be on a leash until they are in the Dog Park Area and owners must properly dispose of waste.

Check our web site at www.sanjoseca.gov/prns for updated information on Dog Parks or call 408-277-2757 for more information.
